

Sharing the good news together

Together, the congregations of Allegheny Mennonite Conference and Mennonite Mission Network are sharing the good news of God's healing and hope around the world. We are deeply grateful for our partnership with you, and thank you for your prayers, people and resources shared in God's mission. We give thanks for the honor of partnering with you to extend the reach of Allegheny Mennonite Conference and its congregations as we engage the world with the message of God's reconciling love in Jesus Christ.

"Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish."

—John 21:10-13 (NRSV)

Allegheny Mennonite Conference in mission

Mennonite Mission Network celebrates the ways that we and Allegheny Mennonite Conference worked together to share the good news of Christ this past year. Thank you for your faithful participation in mission.

Program participation

- Four individuals are participating in the Service Adventure program: Melanie and Matthew Alwine, Thomas Mennonite Church, are serving at Johnstown, Penn.; Brent and Kirsten Estep of Kaufman Mennonite Church serve at Colorado Springs, Colo.
- Two individuals from Pittsburgh Mennonite Church are serving in Mennonite Voluntary Service: Alisha Bender in Washington, D.C., and Emma Stahl-Wert serving in Tucson, Ariz. Abby Cable, Kaufman Mennonite Church, is serving with Radical Journey in South Africa.
- Three individuals from Allegheny Mennonite Conference congregations are committed prayer partners with Mennonite Mission Network.
- Five pastors from the Casselman Valley district participated in a listening session with Mission Network.

International Ministries

- Maple Grove Mennonite and University Mennonite support the Ghana Global Mission Partnership. Kaufman Mennonite, Martinsburg Mennonite, and Morgantown Church of the Brethren support Bruce Yoder and Nancy Frey and family in Burkina Faso.
- Last year, the children of Allegheny Conference churches contributed $951 to Mission Network's Globe Mission Bank projects.

A blessing:

May the Lord bless Allegheny conference and its congregations with such clarity of vision, grace and love that those observing will say, "These are indeed Christ's disciples."

Amen
