Congregation: Stahl

Jayne Byler is recently home again. She grew up in Allegheny Conference as a Speigle and was a member at Blough. 40 years ago she left the area to attend Eastern Mennonite College (now University). She graduated and did a year of Voluntary service in San Francisco. She later went to seminary at Eastern Mennonite Seminary and then Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary where she completed her MDiv. She has served as pastor at Summit Mennonite in Barberton OH, First Mennonite in Sugarcreek, OH and did an interim at Beech Mennonite, Louisville OH. She also worked for five years as a Hospice Chaplain in Canton OH. Last fall she moved back to the area to become pastor at Stahl Mennonite Church. She is in the mist of settling back into the mountains and anticipates her daughter's family moving from CA to be with her. She anticipates the joy of being grandma and growing flowers in whatever spare time pastoring allows.

Hyattsville

Karrie Peterson is a member of Hyattsville Mennonite Church in Hyattsville, Maryland and has served as a delegate to Allegheny Mennonite Conference for over five years. She is an International Relations Officer at the Bureau of International Labor Affairs at the U.S. Department of Labor where she manages a $30 million portfolio of cooperative agreements to international organizations in over 20 countries to work with foreign governments to address child labor, forced labor, and human trafficking. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Social Science from Bethel College in Kansas, and a Master of Social Work degree with a concentration in social and economic development from the George Warren Brown School of Social Work at Washington University in St. Louis. Ms. Peterson is the current Board President of the Association Board of Jubilee Association of Maryland, an organization established as an outreach by HMC in 1978 to provide opportunities and support to adults with developmental disabilities. In her spare time she enjoys rowing with Capitol Rowing Club located in Washington, D.C. and cheering on the Iowa Hawkeyes wherever that may be.

My wife Harriet and I are currently members of Springs Mennonite church and live at Hidden Valley, PA. Previously I have been a member of Lombard Mennonite Church in Lombard, IL, Neil Avenue Mennonite Church in Columbus, OH, and Pittsburgh Mennonite Church. Harriet and I worked as part-time Relief Sale Coordinators for MCC from 2002 -2009. I was Chairman of the TriState Relief Sale from 2000-2010 and am currently serving as grounds chairman for the TriState Relief Sale. As a member of Springs Mennonite Church I am team teaching an adult Sunday School class and am on the gifts discernment committee.
