CONFERENCE
#77

Thank you from the exchange

I, along with our whole community of faith, the exchange, would like to say thank you to the congregations of Allegheny Mennonite Conference. Thank you! Seriously. You shared your Guest House funds with us, when you had no obligation to do so. You chose to bless us simply because you could, and that generosity means more than you know. It's not just a financial boost; it's a reminder that we're not alone in this work. That kind of support fuels the work we're doing here in Winchester, helping us build a community that reflects Jesus' radical love and welcome.

And hey, I've gotta give a special shoutout to the folks I met at the Laurelville fall celebration—the ones who told me when we talked about the large check, "never underestimate the power of guilt to make you do the right thing." Maybe that's the Holy Spirit moving in mysterious ways, or maybe it's just good old-fashioned Mennonite honesty. Either way, we're grateful to have found a place to call home, with people who get what community looks like. Thank you for believing in this messy, beautiful work of Jesus with us.

— Chris Scott & the exchange
